eRequest

Use 'eRequest' for book requests. Remember to continue submitting requests for books you would like the library to add

November 2011

We hope you enjoyed reading the first issue of our newsletter. Our goal is to keep you up-to-date about services and collections at Thomas Cooper Library.

Remember to send in your book/media requests to help us build our collection. With more titles available electronically, we are interested in your thoughts about e-books. Tell us more by completing the poll in the "Talk to us..." section.

Best regards,
Amy Edwards

Dissertations & Theses

Did you know that through this database we have access to the full text of most dissertations published since 1997, as well as the citations and/or abstracts of more than 2 million theses going back to 1861? Some of these earlier theses are also being converted to full text, which adds another reason to check out this resource if you haven't lately. Click here to access.

LibGuides

Each guide is created by librarians for the students and faculty at University of South Carolina. Don't know where to start? The guide will lead you to books, journal articles, internet resources, and more on whatever topic you are researching. Take a look!

If you would like to have a guide prepared for your course contact us at: tclrefbi@mailbox.sc.edu to the collection.

if you have an established account or would like to create one. Otherwise send your requests to your department's faculty representative or to your liaison.
