eRequest

Use 'eRequest' for book requests. Remember to continue submitting requests for books you would like the library to add to the collection.

September 2011

Greeting from your School of Social Work Liaison,

Welcome back to the fall 2011 semester. This is the first issue of the library's newsletter, "From Your Libraries ..." The newsletter will provide general library information as well as information specifically helpful for you the Social Work Faculty.

As your liaison I am here to help you with requesting needed library materials, instruction sessions on library resources that would improve your student's research, or just being your point of contact if you or your students have questions or issues with any library service.

Please remember that all book or video requests are made through "eRequest" throughout the academic year. Journal requests can be sent directly to Gary Geer of our Collection Development Office.

If you have any other questions feel free to contact me at either Bill Sudduth or 777-1775.

Oxford Bibliographies Online - Social Work

Bibliography of topics in social work and related disciplines. Entries have an introduction to the topic before identifying introductory works, journals, theoretical works and citations to key literature of sub-topics.. For more information see "about this database" or to log in click here.

Ask A Librarian

if you have an established account. Otherwise send your requests to your department' faculty representative or to your liaison.

Need some help with that question? Our "Ask A Librarian" services are available to anyone, whether faculty, student or staff. Librarians are here to help answer your questions. Read more about how to contact us via a method that works for you.

Library Instruction Available

We provide instruction to meet the varying needs of you and your students. Are you interested in a general library introduction or hands-on instruction? Read more about how our librarians can help.

Scan and Deliver - Let us get that for you

Through your Interlibrary Loan account request that copies of journal articles or book chapters held in print in the libraries be delivered to your email account. This service is free of charge for USC faculty, staff, and students at any USC campus.

For more information see the Scan and Deliver Policies.
