September 2011

Greetings from your Linguistics Liaison,

Please let me know if I can help you or your students with library needs. Contact me if you'd like to set up a library session with your class or if you want an online research guide created just for them. I'm also your contact for requesting books for the collection.

Gary

Blackwell Companion to Phonology

Documents major insights into human language gathered by phonologists in past decades; highlights interdisciplinary connections, such as the social and computational sciences; and examines statistical and experimental techniques. This online version includes sound files and links to bibliographies, journals, and other external web content.

Ask A Librarian

Need some help with that question? Our "Ask A Librarian" services are available to anyone, whether faculty, student or staff. Librarians are here to help answer your questions. Read more about how to contact us via a method that works for you.

Library Instruction Available

We provide instruction to meet the varying needs of you and your students. Are you interested in a general library introduction or hands-on instruction? Read more about how our librarians can help.

Scan and Deliver - Let us get that for you

Through your Interlibrary Loan account request that copies of journal articles or book chapters held in print in the libraries be delivered to your email account. This service is free of charge for USC faculty, staff, and students at any USC campus.

For more information see the Scan and Deliver Policies.
