September 2011

Greetings from your English Liaison,

I hope you've had a great start to your semester! As liaison to English, I want to work with you to ensure the library is supporting you as both a teacher and a researcher. Please feel free to contact me to discuss the collections and your areas of interest. I also would be happy to lead a research session for your students or create a LibGuide in support of your course. Email me at sharonv@mailbox.sc.edu or call me at 777–8173.

From Alexander Street Press, this database includes fiction, poetry, interviews and essays, as well as some reference and biographical material. While the material has been converted to text for full searchability, page numbers and front matter are provided for all works included. Click here to access the database.

Ask A Librarian

Need some help with that question? Our "Ask A Librarian" services are available to anyone, whether faculty, student or staff. Librarians are here to help answer your questions. Read more about how to contact us via a method that works for you.

if you have an established account. Otherwise send your requests to your department' faculty representative or to your liaison.

Library Instruction Available

We provide instruction to meet the varying needs of you and your students. Are you interested in a general library introduction or hands-on instruction? Read more about how our librarians can help.
