As usual the Fall semester is upon us! Please send any book and video requests to the eRequest system. Requests for new journal titles should be sent directly to me. If you haven't been over to see the Banned Books week display "Scandal in the Stacks" curated by the LISSA students please stop by before October 19.

If I can help make your teaching or research easier don't hesitate to contact me.

Paul

Featured Item

The third plate : field notes on the future of food

Offers market research reports covering US and International marketplaces. Each report combines data & analysis of the competitive landscape, market-share analysis and consumer profiles. Complex demographic issues are broken into easy-to-understand sections, explaining consumer behavior and demonstrating the structure of the market.

Also includes Travel and Tourism reports for countries worldwide.

*Registration is required using a USC Columbia campus email address.*

The Library At Your Fingertips

eRequest

Use 'eRequest' for book requests. Remember to continue submitting requests for books you would like the library to add to the collection.

if you have an established account or would like to create one. If not, send your requests to your department's faculty representative or to your liaison.

We know your time is valuable. That is why we work hard to put our collections and services at your fingertips. This year, the library has added over 200,000 ebooks to our collection covering a wide range of subject areas. You can easily access printed materials with our Faculty Book Delivery service for books and films and Scan and Deliver service for articles. Use Quick Search to find all of these materials in our collections through one search box. Our Interlibrary Loan service will connect you with resources not available at our library. And if you ever need help, don't hesitate to Ask a Librarian.
