Hi all! It's still too cold to really be Spring, but it's starting to feel like it. And with Spring comes student paper panic. Should any of your students start showing symptoms, point them to Book A Librarian if the issue is research: I'll be happy to help. And just a heads up - the deadline for book orders is March 15.

Level 3

Tour on "YouTube."

eRequest

Use 'eRequest' for book requests. Remember to continue submitting requests for books you would like the library to add to the collection.

if you have an established account or would like to create one. If not, send your requests to your department's faculty representative or to your liaison.

Or give them our self-guided tour. It will introduce them to the Thomas Cooper Library building as well as some of the services offered by the library.

The South Caroliniana Library reopens March 2

The South Caroliniana Library collections are now housed in offsite locations until renovations can be made to safely store the library's one-of-a-kind treasures in the 175-year-old structure.

New Procedures:

Researchers must contact reference staff in advance of their visits via email at sclref@mailbox.sc.edu or by phone at 803-777-3132 to allow for delivery of collection items to the library. There are restrictions on the amount of material that can be requested at one time since it must be retrieved from remote locations.

New Hours:

The reading room will be open to patrons from 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday.
