Happy Fall! I hope your semester is going well. As the temperatures go down and student stress levels start to rise, please remember that I'm happy to work with struggling researchers, either one-on-one, or in the classroom. As always, if you have any questions about the library and / or it's resources, let me know and I will help in any way I can.

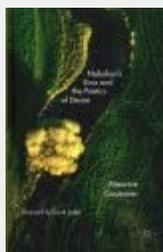

Best,

Sharon

This is not a new resource; however, it does have a new interface, as it is now brought to us through EBSCO. For the most part, searching is the same, and all the indexes are available under "More." Articles link to the catalog and the online journal database as well as interlibrary loan, but to see if we have a book title, you do have to open a 2nd tab or window and search the catalog. Let me know if you or your students have any questions and I'll be happy to help! Click here to connect.

library has added over 200,000 ebooks to our collection covering a wide range of subject areas. You can easily access printed materials with our Faculty Book Delivery service for books and films and Scan and Deliver service for articles. Use Quick Search to find all of these materials in our collections through one search box. Our Interlibrary Loan service will connect you with resources not available at our library. And if you ever need help, don't hesitate to Ask a Librarian.

Use 'eRequest' for book requests. Remember to continue submitting requests for books you would like the library to add to the collection.
