Welcome to the Spring 2015 semester. Please remember that you and your students can contact Bill or Debbie anytime for research consultations and class sessions. Also, the March 15th deadline to place any library book and resource requests is quickly approaching. The library needs the time to process and clear the orders before the fiscal year ends.

The South Caroliniana Library reopens March 2

The South Caroliniana Library collections are now housed in offsite locations until renovations can be made to safely store the library's one-of-a-kind treasures in the 175-year-old structure.

New Procedures:

Researchers must contact reference staff in advance of their visits via email at sciref@mailbox.sc.edu or by phone at 803-777-3132 to allow for delivery of collection items to the library. There are restrictions on the amount of material that can be requested at one time since it must be retrieved from remote locations.

New Hours:

The reading room will be open to patrons from 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Workshop - Open Educational Resources: Finding and Utilizing Affordable Course Materials

Are you concerned about the rising costs of textbooks? Has the performance of your students been affected by their ability to purchase course materials?

This library workshop is designed to help you discover and evaluate free and low cost materials for use in your classroom.

Join us March 20, 2015 in Thomas Cooper Library (Level 1 Multimedia Classroom) from 10:45 am- 11:45 am.
