Hello, this fall semester sure does feel busy with so many students on campus! Thanks to all of you who have already sent some of your book requests through the eRequest system. Remember that is the place to request items you need. If you would like to suggest journal titles, please contact me directly with those titles.

If you find you already need a break from the rigors of class preparation and teaching, check out Home Movie Day, hosted by the University Libraries' Moving Image Research Collection and the Nickelodeon.

As always, please get in touch with me if I can help with your teaching or research!

Amber

We know your time is valuable. That is why we work hard to put our collections and services at your fingertips. This year, the library has added over 200,000 ebooks to our collection covering a wide range of subject areas. You can easily access printed materials with our Faculty Book Delivery service for books and films and Scan and Deliver service for articles. Use Quick Search to find all of these materials in our collections through one search box. Our Interlibrary Loan service will connect you with resources not available at our library. And if you ever need help, don't hesitate to Ask a Librarian.

eRequest

Use 'eRequest' for book requests. Remember to continue submitting requests for books you would like the library to add to the collection.
