Dear Sociology Faculty,

I hope everyone is having a great semester so far. I just wanted to send out a quick message letting you all know that I am always available to help with book and other item requests and can help with instruction (both course wide or individually) to help your students with conducting effective research. If you are teaching a course that you think could benefit from a research instruction session, please let me know. As always feel free to contact me with any suggestions, questions, or other concerns about the library.

Sincerely,
Brent Appling
Sociology Liaison

We know your time is valuable. That is why we work hard to put our collections and services at your fingertips. This year, the library has added over 200,000 ebooks to our collection covering a wide range of subject areas. You can easily access printed materials with our Faculty Book Delivery service for books and films and Scan and Deliver service for articles. Use Quick Search to find all of these materials in our collections through one search box. Our Interlibrary Loan service will connect you with resources not available at our library. And if you ever need help, don't hesitate to Ask a Librarian.

eRequest

Use 'eRequest' for book requests. Remember to continue submitting requests for books you would like the library to add to the collection.
