We want to hear from you! You will soon be receiving an email from Tom McNally, Dean of Libraries, with a link to an important faculty survey. This survey focuses on research, teaching, and publishing, and it seeks your perspective on a range of topics, including how you engage with and perceive the library. In particular, the survey will help the library gain insight into how our faculty members work in a rapidly changing and increasingly digital environment.

We hope you will take a few minutes from your busy schedule to assist us!

PhilPapers: Philosophical Research Online is both an index and archive of philosophical works. In addition to indexing books and journal articles, it monitors open access archives and personal pages for articles by academic and professional philosophers. Search or use the structured bibliography. Click here to access.

UofSC Digital Collections: Collaborate with us!

Are you interested in working with historical maps, manuscripts, or photographs? Check out University Libraries' latest digitized primary resources at USC Libraries' Digital Collections. To learn more about how to work with us, see Faculty Guidelines for Working with Digital Collections.

eRequest

Use 'eRequest' for book requests. Remember to continue submitting requests for books you would like the library to add to the collection.
