Happy fall!

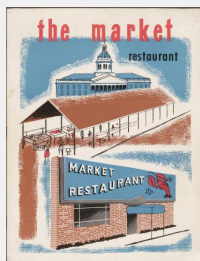

We're geared up for a busy and productive semester in the library. As always, the library is here to assist your students with their research. We can provide one-on-one research assistance through our Book-A-Librarian service, can bring library instruction sessions to your classroom, and are always available through phone, chat, or in-person. Drop by the library for a workshop, to check out one of our new books, or to visit our Rare Books and Special Collections department.

Reserves and E-Reserves

Thomas Cooper Library offers an electronic reserves service. We are happy to scan library materials or find links to resources for you, as well as address copyright concerns connected to posting these materials. To provide this service, we need a list of the reading assignments as well as the dates of the assignments. If this information is contained in your syllabus, please feel free to email that syllabus to volmerm@mailbox.sc.edu. If you prefer to fill out a form, you may find one here: E-Reserves Form.
