Hello from Thomas Cooper Library!

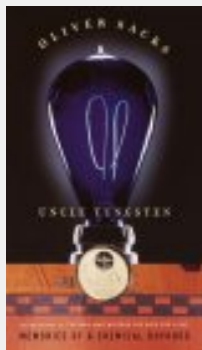

I hope you all had a great summer. To our new faculty members, welcome!

Please remember that book and film purchase requests for Thomas Cooper Library's collections can be made through our eRequest system. You can also email your requests to me at winches2@mailbox.sc.edu. New faculty, remember that you have special money set aside for one-time purchases during your first year here.

If you teach a class with a library research component, I am available to help by leading sessions on using library resources, creating research guides tailored to your assignments, and offering one-on-one consultations with students. I'd love to talk to you about any of these options.
