Greetings from Thomas Cooper Library, I hope that your fall semester is going well. Are you teaching a course with a research assignment? If your students are having difficulty locating sources, consider scheduling a library workshop. If time is limited, I can create a research guide to help your students navigate the databases and locate relevant material.

Please contact me if you have any questions concerning our library resources. Looking forward to hearing from you this academic year.

Sincerely yours,
Amy Edwards
