Description of Materials

Voting Record consists of 12 linear feet of material (12 cartons) and includes information on Hollings' committee votes along with his voting history as compiled by the Democratic Policy Committee (DPC), his own office, interest groups, Project Vote Smart, and the Senate Computing Center. The documents are arranged by their origin, whether produced by outside groups or in-house by the Senator's staff, and further sorted by the Congress or topic.

Committee Votes includes Hollings' voting record from his committees, including Appropriations, Commerce, and Budget, from 1991 to 1998.

DPC consists of his voting record as compiled by the Democratic Policy Committee. Among the documents are those comparing Hollings to Thurmond, particularly from 1993 to 1996; individualized voting reports by subject; limited records of legislative achievements, particularly in 1975 to 1978; Rollcall votes, 1967-73, 75-82, 85-94, 2003, listing how every member of the Senate voted; and Voting Record Books, 1967 to 1999 (except for 1971, 1989, and 1991), listing each of Hollings' votes for the congress.

Hollings' Office contains files compiled by the Senator's office explaining his voting record and positions on various topics.

Interest Groups includes booklets, pamphlets, magazines, and newspapers from third-party lobbying groups rating the Senator and his peers on a variety of issues, often from both sides of the matter.

Project Vote Smart consists of two folders of Hollings' voting record organized by subject as compiled by Project Vote Smart; an independent, non-partisan group dedicated to publishing honest voting records of all elected officials.

Senate Computing Center is Hollings' voting record as officially documented by the Senate for the following Congresses: 95th, 98th, 100th, 101st, and 105th-108th.
