Notes On Terminology:

GLBTQ (Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer)
An acronym that stands for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer. “Queer” is this context is not used as a slur, but as a re-appropriated term. “Queer” is still considered offensive to many people, but is commonly used by many activists and in academia. For example, “Queer Studies.” GLBT, LGBT, and LGBTQ are also in common use and are used in many of the brochures and pamphlets that are apart of this collection.

BDSM (Bondage and Discipline, Dominance and Submission / Sadism and Masochism)
Within Master Regi’s Papers (SEE BELOW), the acronym BDSM occurs frequently. The term "BDSM" is an abbreviation derived from the terms bondage and discipline, dominance and submission, sadism and masochism. It defines a spectrum of behaviors, including dominance, submission, punishment, masochism, bondage, role play, and a large variety of other activities, frequently sexual in nature.

Pride / Pride Festival
In South Carolina, there are an increasing number of Pride Festivals. It is common for any Pride Festival to be called, simply, “Pride” by participants. The following are a list of various Pride Festivals held in South Carolina that are documented in the collection. The terminology for the Pride Festivals below is used consistently throughout this finding aid.

South Carolina Pride / Pride Festival
Since 1999, the South Carolina Gay and Lesbian Pride Movement (now SC Pride) has hosted the Pride Festival, with the exception of 2000 when they did not host a Pride. This is the oldest state-wide Pride Festival in South Carolina, and is usually held in Columbia, SC. In 1997, it was held in Greenville, SC; and in 1998, it was held in Myrtle Beach, SC. The 1997 and 1998 Prides created or responded to controversy in their host cities, and more information is available about these controversies in the “Controversies Documented In This Collection” section at the end of the prefatory material to the finding aid.

South Carolina Black Pride
The first-ever South Carolina Pride led by Black folks and allies was the "2006 Columbia, SC Black/Latino Gay Pride" and was founded by the Carolinas Black
Pride Movement, especially Mr. Jermaine Nakia Lee, in conjunction with Palmetto Umojo, as the host group. It included a list of week-long events and held its Community Expo in the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center. Today, this festival is called South Carolina Black Pride and is hosted by an organization by the same name.

_Upstate Pride_

Founded in 2009 and held in Spartanburg, SC, Upstate Pride is strongly supported by the Unitarian Universalist Church of Spartanburg.

Note On Oral Histories:

For information about the oral history transcripts that are part of the Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender Archival Collection, please ask a South Caroliniana archivist for more information.

Persons Documented In the Collection:

_Blanton, Jim_

Jim Blanton helped found Artists Against AIDS, Lambda Alliance (an early precursor to SCGLPM in the late 1970s), and SCGLPM. He also helped found the Healing Circle, a spiritual group that offered comfort to HIV/AIDS patients and their families. Jim Blanton was the first male co-chair of SCGLPM and was involved very early on with Rainbow Radio. A general history of Jim Blanton can be obtained in his oral history transcripts.

_Deanhart, Michael_

_DiAna DiAna & SC AIDS Education Network_

_Dunbar, Kevin_
Greene, Harlen

Harlen Greene is the Director of Archival and Reference Services at the Avery Research Center for African American History and Culture at the College of Charleston. Mr. Green published an article on Charleston in the first edition of Out Traveler, which is included in this collection.

Hancock, Harriet

Harriet Hancock is jokingly called the "Mother of the Movement" in South Carolina. She participated in the founding of the following organizations: PFLAG, PALSS, and SCGLPM. She drafted Achieving Full Participation, a report that led to gay and lesbian civil rights protections being passed in Columbia, SC in the 1980s. In 2003, SCGLPM renamed its community center in her honor. A general history can be obtained in her oral history transcript.

Kennedy, Sean and Sean’s Last Wish

May 16, 2007, Sean Kennedy as leaving a local bar in Greenville, SC when he became the victim of a hate crime. A young man got out of a car, called Mr. Kennedy a faggot, and punched him in the face so hard it broke all the bones in his face. He fell back and hit the asphalt so hard that his brain was separated from his brain stem and ricocheted in this head. Mr. Kennedy was 20 years of age at the time of his death.

Sean’s Last Wish is an organization created by the Kennedy family which seeks to raise awareness of the fact that South Carolina does not have hate crimes laws. As a result of this and of South Carolina not have degrees of murder (first degree and second degree murder, for example) in the law, Mr. Kennedy’s murderer, Stephen Moller, will spend approximately 10 months in jail, after which he will be on probation for 3 years.

Madden, Ed

Ed Madden is a poet, political activist, and associate professor of English and Women's Studies at the University of South Carolina. Dr. Madden has been Secretary, Vice President, and President of SCGLPM. He has written numerous editorials advocating gay liberation in local and national newspapers. He is also the executive producer of Rainbow Radio. A general history of Ed Madden can be obtained in his oral history transcript.

Master Regi
Master Regi is a long-time resident of Columbia, SC. In the 1990s, he founded Queer Nation in Columbia, as well a GLBTQ-friendly bowling team called Southern Comfort. During the 1990s, Master Regi was also an advisor to SCGLPM. Master Regi is also a leather/BDSM enthusiast and an advocate and prefers to be addressed as either "Master Regi" or "Regi." A general history of Master Regi can be obtained in his oral history transcript.

Master Regi was also editor for a time of the Levi/Leather Brigade’s newsletter, Brigadier, and featured in an article about Leather culture in the July 1994, V. 1 N. 7, of In Unison. Both are available in the GLBTQ Collection, along with histories copies of materials from other South Carolina BDSM groups of which Master Regi was a member or of whom he has personally collected. If interested, please see a librarian at the South Caroliniana for assistance.

BDSM groups which Master Regi helped found or participated in are as follows: The New Tribe (Columbia, SC), the Levi/Leather Brigade (Columbia, SC), the Spartans (Spartanburg, SC), Trident Knights (Charleston, SC), Palmetto Adventure (South Carolina-wide), Carolina Clubs (North and South Carolina-wide).

McEwen, Alvin

Stoneking, Carol
Carol Stoneking was director of the Columbia YWCA until she retired in the mid-1980s. She is active in OLOC, Old Lesbians Organizing for Change. Ms. Stoneking was very active in the fight against the SC Marriage Discrimination Amendment that passed in 2006. A general history of Carol Stoneking can be obtained in her oral history transcript.

Voelker, Patricia
Patricia Voelker is the former pastor of the Metropolitan Community Church of Columbia, which is now the Garden of Grace church. Pastor Voelker is an openly-lesbian clergy-member. A general history of Patricia Voelker can be obtained in her oral history transcript.

Waites, Steve
Steve Waites was active in PALSS during its early years as well as being involved with various GLBTQ-friendly churches. A general history of Steve Waites can be obtained in his oral history transcript.

Walsh, David

Wilson, Ryan
Ryan Wilson is the president of SCGLPM as of May 2008. As a graduate student at USC Columbia, he was the Safe Zone graduate student coordinator. Safe Zone is a program that promotes GLBTQ tolerance in academic environments. Ryan Wilson was affiliated with the Clemson Gay Straight Alliance (CGSA) and is affiliated with the Bisexual, Gay, Lesbian, and Straight Student Association at USC Columbia. (SEE CGSA FILE) (SEE BGLSA FILE)

Wolfe, Regan

Organizations Documented In the Collection:
AIDS Benefit Foundation of South Carolina / Dining With Friends

Alliance for Full Acceptance (AFFA)
Alliance for Full Acceptance is a gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender human rights organization headquartered in Charleston, SC. AFFA offers two Program Groups which meet regularly: Our Parenting Group and ADORASO, our outreach program to the religious community. AFFA also regularly offer workshops on a variety of topics (Spirituality, Sexual and Gender Orientation; Coming Out; Principle-Centered Leadership and Management; and Sexual and Gender Orientation Issues) and administers a Small Grants Program for organizations working with LGBTQ Youth.

AFFA is most known widely for its billboard campaigns in the Lowcountry of South Carolina. It also produced a number of materials against the SC Family Discrimination Amendment in 2006.

Bisexual, Gay, Lesbian, and Straight Alliance (BGLSA)
BGLSA is the Gay / Straight Alliance at the University of South Carolina Columbia. They have a file within the collection, and are referenced throughout this finding aid in various series. BGLSA was founded as the Gay Student Association. They sponsor the annual Mr. and Miss Gaymecock Pageant, which was originally known as Lipp-Synching in Professional Style (L.I.P.S.). This event is documented in the collection under both titles.

South Carolina Black Pride
The first-ever South Carolina Pride led by Black folks and allies was the "2006 Columbia, SC Black/Latino Gay Pride" and was founded by the Carolinas Black Pride Movement, especially Mr. Jermaine Nakia Lee, in conjunction with Palmetto Umojo, as the host group. It included a list of week-long events and held its Community Expo in the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center. Today, this festival is called South Carolina Black Pride and is hosted by an organization by the same name. SC Black Pride seeks to celebrate the beauty, creativity, passion, and dignity of South Carolina’s Black LGBT Community.

South Carolina Equality Coalition (SCEC) / South Carolina Equality (SCE)
Although there is not a specific SCEC file, SCEC materials are present within various series. It was founded to fight the SC Marriage Discrimination Amendment. As of DATE, it now goes by the name South Carolina Equality.

South Carolina Gay and Lesbian Business Guild (SCGLBG)
The South Carolina Gay + Lesbian Business Guild is a not-for-profit organization supporting the needs of South Carolina's gay and lesbian members of the business community and our allies. It was formed in 1993 to encourage networking, business development and support within the gay and lesbian community. The Guild strives to bring people together with educational events, monthly informational meetings, social outings and community outreach projects.

South Carolina Gay and Lesbian Pride Movement (SCGLPM) / South Carolina Pride Movement (SCPM)
SCGPLM sponsors the South Carolina Pride March in Columbia annually and runs the Harriet Hancock Community Center. SCGLPM also sponsors various advocacy and educational programs, as well as sponsoring Rainbow Radio, a South Carolina-based, gay-themed radio talk show that is broadcast Sundays at 10 a.m. in Columbia, SC on Air America, WOIC-AM 1230. A general history of SCGLPM can be obtained in the oral history transcripts. As of September 21, 2008, SCGLPM changed its name to the South Carolina Pride Movement. (Note: Series 17 series viii contains scrapbooks of SCPM that have been sent to the University Annex. Other SCPM Series, 1-4, are in Boxes 1-20.)

South Carolina Progressive Network (SCPN)
The purpose of the South Carolina Progressive Network is to promote, through education and action, human, civil, reproductive and workers’ rights, environmental protection and government reform. SCPN boarder progressive agenda makes it an advocate for many marginalized groups that includes, but is not exclusive to, the GLBTQ community.

It consists of both individual and organizational members, including many SC GLBTQ organizations, including Alliance for Full Acceptance (AFFA), SC Black Pride, SC Equality, SC Gay and Lesbian Business Guild, SC Pride (formally known as SCGLPM), Sean’s Last Wish.

Upstate Pride (Spartanburg, SC)
This organization hosts the Upstate Pride Festival, which was first held in 2009.

Controversies Documented In This Collection:

College of Charleston GLBT Minor Controversy
In 2003, the College of Charleston considered creating a GLBT Minor Studies program. SC Rep. Altman threatened to cut off the school’s funding over the issue. Because of the controversy, the GLBT program did not happen.

Greenville, SC / South Carolina Pride Festival / Atlanta Olympics Controversy
In 1997, SCGLPM held its Pride Festival in Greenville, SC (not to be confused with the Upstate Pride Festival created in 2009). This was done in response to the Greenville County Council’s adoption of a resolution declaring, “homosexuality is incompatible with the standards of this community.”
In 1996, when the Olympic Flame was in route to the Atlanta Games, the flame was transported by van through Greenville County except through the downtown city of Greenville. This was a protest of the Greenville County Council’s homophobic resolution.
Indigo Girls / Irmo High School Controversy
In Spring 1998, a scheduled concert by the musical group the Indigo Girls was cancelled. Principal Gerald Witt cited an obscene lyric from the song Shame on You as the reason for the cancellation. However, there were several reports that, the evening after it was announced that the Indigo Girls would hold a concert at the school, Witt received numerous calls on his cell phone from the parents of students, informing Witt that the lead singers of the Indigo girls were both lesbians. The concert was subsequently canceled, though Witt maintained that it was because there were fears that the event could possible grow out of control.

Irmo High School Gay / Straight Alliance Controversy
In 2008, students at Irmo High School decided to create a Gay / Straight Alliance. After a protracted fight, the Gay / Straight Alliance was allowed to exist, but only after a change in school policy that requires permission forms for students to join school groups. Principal Eddie Walker announced that he would resign over the issue at the end of the 2008-2009 school year, although he continues to hold the position as of July 2009. Principal Walker felt that the Gay Straight Alliance violated his “professional beliefs and religious convictions.”

Obama Protest
In October 2008, then candidate Obama invited an ex-gay gospel singer Donnie McClurkin, the Rev. to perform at an election event in South Carolina. Many GLBTQ organizations and individuals protested.

Myrtle Beach, SC / 1998 South Carolina Pride Festival
In 1998, SCGLPM held its Pride Festival in Myrtle Beach, SC. The festival was opposed strongly by then-Myrtle Beach Mayor Mark McBride and the Burroughs & Chapin Company. The South Carolina Pride Festival was held despite this opposition.

“So Gay” Controversy
In 2008, the SC Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism participated in the “So Gay” campaign in London, England, to attract GLBTQ tourists to South Carolina. (The advertising campaign also targeted five other US cities.) When The Palmetto Scoop, a SC political blog, became aware of the “So Gay” media campaign, it became a controversy. The government of South Carolina did not pay the bill for “So Gay” as a result. SCGLPM did pay the bill on the behalf of the state, and used “So Gay” as a theme of its 2008 Pride Festival.
