Transnational Feminisms

There are hundreds of web sites added each month. There is information on almost everything. Some of it is useful, some of it misleading, and some just for pure enjoyment. For this web bibliography I've tried to find some sites that will compliment the theme for this year’s conference and some sites just for fun. Since web sites can be very fleeting, as soon as any list is published, the URL or web address may have disappeared by the time you go to look for the site. Try a web browser to see if the site has been moved to a new URL or perhaps you can find a new web site of equal value. [ Jane Olsgaard, 1-30-06 ]

THE DIRECTORY OF SOURCES FOR THE HISTORY OF WOMEN IN IRELAND
http://www.nationalarchives.ie/wh/sources.html

Contains information on collections relating to the history of women in Ireland from the earliest times to the present, gathered from public and private repositories in the Republic of Ireland and in Northern Ireland. The Directory covers over 14,000 collections and sources and contains over 100,000 pieces of information from 262 repositories.

WOMEN IN 20th-CENTURY IRELAND
http://www.nationalarchives.ie/wh/w20.html

A survey examined the files of the Department of the Taoiseach between the years 1922 and 1966. Just under 2,000 boxes of files were examined. Every page within each file was perused to ascertain whether it contained any reference to women. This database contains just under 20,000 entries.
