UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA
Mr. Donald Etherington

Donald “Don” Etherington is President Emeritus of Etherington Conservation Services. Nationally and internationally recognized for innovative design and implementation of state-of-the-art conservation procedures, including phased preservation programs for libraries and institutions, Mr. Etherington brings over 45 years of professional experience to the president’s chair at Etherington Conservation Services.

After extensive training in England, Mr. Etherington established a four-year program in bookbinding and design at the Southampton College of Art. He has conducted workshops and seminars for diverse groups and institutions such as the University of Texas, the University of Maryland, the Guild of Bookworkers, the American Library Association, the India Conservation Institute in Lucknow, India, and the American University in Cairo.

Mr. Etherington holds the position of Honorary Fellow in both the American Institute for Conservation and the International Institute for Conservation. Other professional affiliations include the Guild of Bookworkers (Past Chairman, Standards Committee), Accredited Fellow Institute of Paper Conservation in England and member of the American Library Association.

Don has been married to Monique Lallier, the internationally recognized book-binder, since 1987. They live in Summerfield, North Carolina.
Mr. Matthew Johnson

Matthew “Matt” Johnson is the Senior Rare Book Conservator at Etherington Conservation Services in Browns Summit, North Carolina. Mr. Johnson is a 1991 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where he earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Design and Printmaking. He received additional training from Frank Mowery (Folger Shakespeare Library), Linda Blaser (National Archives and Records Administration), and Monique Lallier for French binding methods.

Mr. Johnson joined Etherington Conservation Services (known then as the Conservation Division of Information Conservation Inc.) in January 1993 and trained under the direct supervision of Don Etherington. He has continued to enhance his knowledge and skills with regular attendance at advanced level conservation workshops and seminars.

While at Etherington Conservation Services, Mr. Johnson has been extensively involved in staff training and public outreach in addition to his conservation treatments and project supervision. He is a Professional Associate of the American Institute for Conservation (AIC) and serves on the Executive Board of the Southeast Regional Conservation Association (SERCA).

Matt and his wife Annemarie, daughter Jemma and son Evan live in Kernersville, North Carolina, where they are involved in Boy Scouts and the Second Harvest Food Bank.

In 2002, the Ex Libris Society was established to recognize donors who give $1,000 or more annually to funds that support the University Libraries, including the South Caroliniana Library, Thomas Cooper Library, Ernest F. Hollings Special Collections Library, Moving Image Research Collections, Music Library, and Elliott White Springs Business Library.

These generous donors are critical to the work of the libraries. Contributions may be made to more than 80 funds and endowments which support the acquisition of new materials, the preservation of existing collections, the creation of informative publications, and the furthering of many other library programs.

Ongoing gifts are vital to the Libraries’ mission, and contributions are recognized for the calendar year. A complete listing of library funds and endowments may be found at www.sc.edu/library/develop/ce.html or in the Ex Libris Society brochure.

For more information, please call Carol Benfield or Stephanie Learner at 803-777-5564 or visit: www.sc.edu/library/develop/develop.html.
